The 4th National Adaptation Forum will take place in April 23-25, 2019 in Madison, Wisconsin at the Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center. The Forum gathers the diverse adaptation community to foster knowledge exchange, innovation and mutual support for a better tomorrow. This event includes opportunities for professional development through formal trainings, facilitated practitioner presentations, and in-person discussions which afford attendees the opportunity to learn, share and network to be climate informed. The 2019 Forum will continue to engage practitioners from all levels of government, tribal members, non-governmental organizations, natural resource managers, conservation biologists, health professionals, equity leaders, community groups, businesses, academia, planners, architects, and anyone working to prepare for climate change.

Proposals are now being accepted for all session types that reflect the best thinking in the adaptation field. Deadline for proposal submissions is September 4, 2018

Dear [Colleague],

I hope that you are having a great summer. I wanted to reach out to let you know that the Call for Proposals for the National Adaptation Forum is now open!

The 4th National Adaptation Forum will take place in April 23-25, 2019 in Madison, Wisconsin at the Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center. The Forum gathers the diverse adaptation community to foster knowledge exchange, innovation and mutual support for a better tomorrow.

We participated in the National Adaptation Forum in 2017 and think that the Forum is one of the most important climate adaptation conferences to attend! The program is created by and for the adaptation community. We encourage you to submit a session proposal. You can choose from a symposium, training session, working group, oral presentation, poster, or tool. You can learn more about the process here. Deadline for proposal submissions is September 4, 2018.

We hope that you will join us at the 4th National Adaptation Forum!

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
